

Good Food in Greenwich Strategic Lead

£27,500 pro rata

21 hours a week, flexible working

Fixed 1-year contract

GCDA is looking for a new Good Food in Greenwich Strategic Lead!

Established for nearly 40 years, GCDA is a not for profit organisation which, since its inception, has been supporting communities to thrive. The organisation delivers work through consultancies, commissions, partnerships, public sector tenders. www.gcda.coop

GCDA is the lead for the Good Food in Greenwich Partnership, and has been at the forefront of innovative and exciting work in all areas related to food for over 20 years. We are looking for a passionate, experienced and dynamic person to lead on the strategic direction and action of the partnership. This role will lead on the development of the Good Food in Greenwich Partnership and ensure the borough successfully reaches Silver in the Sustainable Food Places award scheme by next year.

For further information or for the full application pack please email mel@gcda.org.uk

Closing date for applications: Friday 25th September 2020

Interviews will take place on September 30th or October 1st, 2020